

Standard Format for „Sport for Ethnic Minorities” Tournament

The format should present a standardised set of ideas, rules, and hints for organising a successful tournament.

Mission and Goals: Clearly define the mission and goals of the tournament.
Choosing tournament name and Logo: Choose an appropriate name and design a logo that reflects the tournament's purpose and inclusivity.
Organising team: Form an organising committee responsible for planning, promoting, and executing the tournament. Ensure diversity within the committee to reflect the tournament's values. Tournament Structure: Decide on the overall structure of the tournament. Common options include round-robin, single- elimination, or group stage followed by knockout rounds

Sports and Activities: Determine which sports or activities will be included in the tournament. Consider including a variety of sports that appeal to a wide range of participants.
Venue Selection: Choose suitable venues that are easily accessible to participants from various ethnic backgrounds. Ensure venues are equipped to accommodate different sports.
Participant Eligibility: Clearly define eligibility criteria for participants, including ethnic background requirements. Ensure these criteria align with the tournament's goals while avoiding exclusion or discrimination.
Rules and Regulations: Establish clear rules and regulations for each sport or activity. Ensure that these rules are fair and inclusive, taking into account participants' varying skill levels.
Promotion and Marketing: Develop a marketing plan to promote the tournament widely, emphasizing its commitment to diversity and inclusion.
Sponsorship and Funding: Seek sponsorship and funding from organizations that align with the tournament's values. This may include government agencies, NGOs, or private companies.
Schedule and Timeline: Create a detailed tournament schedule, including dates for registration, qualification rounds,

and the main event. Ensure flexibility to accommodate participants' needs.
Safety and Medical Support: Arrange for medical support and emergency services at tournament venues to ensure the safety of all participants.
Feedback and Evaluation: Collect feedback from participants, spectators, and volunteers to assess the tournament's impact and identify areas for improvement.	